

START YOUR ADVENTURE TODAY!

Looking for your dream career? Scan QR codes to watch inspiring videos of local Aboriginal businesses.

VISIT WESTERNAUSTRALIA.JOBS

Love food and connecting with your culture?

A job in the cooking and hospitality space might be for you! See how Temali shares her culture and connects people through food and how Maria gets to cook with bush foods and grow her dream.

Love community and making people feel special?

Zabby and the crew at Balangarra Home Valley dive into different jobs on the Station, support each other and have plenty of laughs along the way!

Love spending time outdoors?

Rhett and Rohan work together as tour guides to create fun experiences and lasting memories for visitors.

Love cooking and connecting with your culture?

Nikola has grown her own bush foods catering business, learning and being inspired through family and developing her skills through TAFE.

Love meeting new people and sharing your culture?

Johani shares what it's like to be a tour guide — meeting new people, having meaningful convos, and making a difference just by being you and sharing your culture with visitors.

Love sharing your culture with visitors?

Rebecca gets to share her culture and sense of humour through tour guiding, to enrich the minds of visitors.

Love sharing your family stories?

Kerry-Ann loves sharing her family stories on Country, in her own way as a tour guide.

Love being on the water?

Rosanna shares her passion, knowledge and history as a tour guide in her own business.

Love having fun and want to work on Country?

Neville recommends being a tour guide because there is no stress in it, there is a lot of fun in it and you get to stay on your Country!

Love helping people and being in a team?

Renee and her daughter Marleigh-J deliver tours and share impactful experiences with visitors. Renee says that tourism doesn't have to be on the front end and there are many jobs behind the scenes that help make the magic happen!

Love nature and the outdoors?

Capes creates journeys of learning with nature as his classroom. In tourism you can use your 4WD driving, senior first aid and surf lifesaving skills.

Love being creative?

Roni shares the creative career opportunities in tourism, including mentoring in art, curation, arts administration, finance and management.

Where to from here?

For more information talk to your teacher, and read our careers guide:

Reach out to your local Jobs and Skills centre for careers guidance:

